ADVERTISEMENT.

We present to the legal profession this new Digest of Law Publications, being the first attempt, as far as we are aware, that has been made to publish a legal catalogue on this plan. It is believed it will prove serviceable, and merit a favorable reception.

Lawyers frequently lose important and valuable moments in puzzling and searching to find who, or whether any one has produced a work on the subject they desire to investigate; for without the memory of a Macaulay one can not retain, even if he ever knew, the name of every legal author on every subject.

We have spared no labor in repeating the names of books under as many heads as necessary, and have, whenever useful, gone into the contents of the book and classified even its chapters in our Catalogue. For this part of the work, as well as in arranging the books under their proper legal titles, we acknowledge our indebtedness to MR. CLEMENT BATES, Editor of the "New Ohio Digest," "Littleton & Blatchley's Insurance Digest," etc.

OUR GENERAL LAW STOCK embraces a large and general assortment of works, old as well as new, special attention being given to the collection of Reports, etc., which are out of print and scarce. New Treatises and the Federal, State, and other Reports are received as soon as issued. State and other Libraries, and members of the Bar desirous of keeping up their series of Reports, would do well to furnish us with a list, so that the new volumes may be sent to them promptly on publication, without further orders.

OUR STOCK OF MISCELLANEOUS BOOKS includes every Department of Literature, and is selected with special reference to the wants of public and private Libraries.

ORDERS FOR FOREIGN BOOKS—Law and Miscellaneous, old and new—are forwarded weekly; and are carefully and promptly filled at the lowest prices. We have an experienced agent in London, who gives careful attention to our orders, and especially to the collection of Old, Rare Works, such modern works as are “out of print,” works on special subjects, etc.

Books, etc., for Public Institutions imported free of duty.

PRINTING AND BINDING DEPARTMENTS.—We possess unusual facilities for the speedy and correct execution of all kind of Law Work, Briefs, Records, Blanks, etc. A specimen pamphlet of Brief Printing, exhibiting the various styles, varieties of type and sizes, with full directions for preparing manuscript, reading proof, etc., will be mailed free, on application.

THE PRICES OF AMERICAN BOOKS given in this Catalogue are the usual retail rates, and are subject to discount according to the character of the books selected. Foreign books are marked net, and are not usually subject to discount.

MONTHLY LISTS OF NEW BOOKS published in this Country, England and France, will be sent regularly to any address on application.

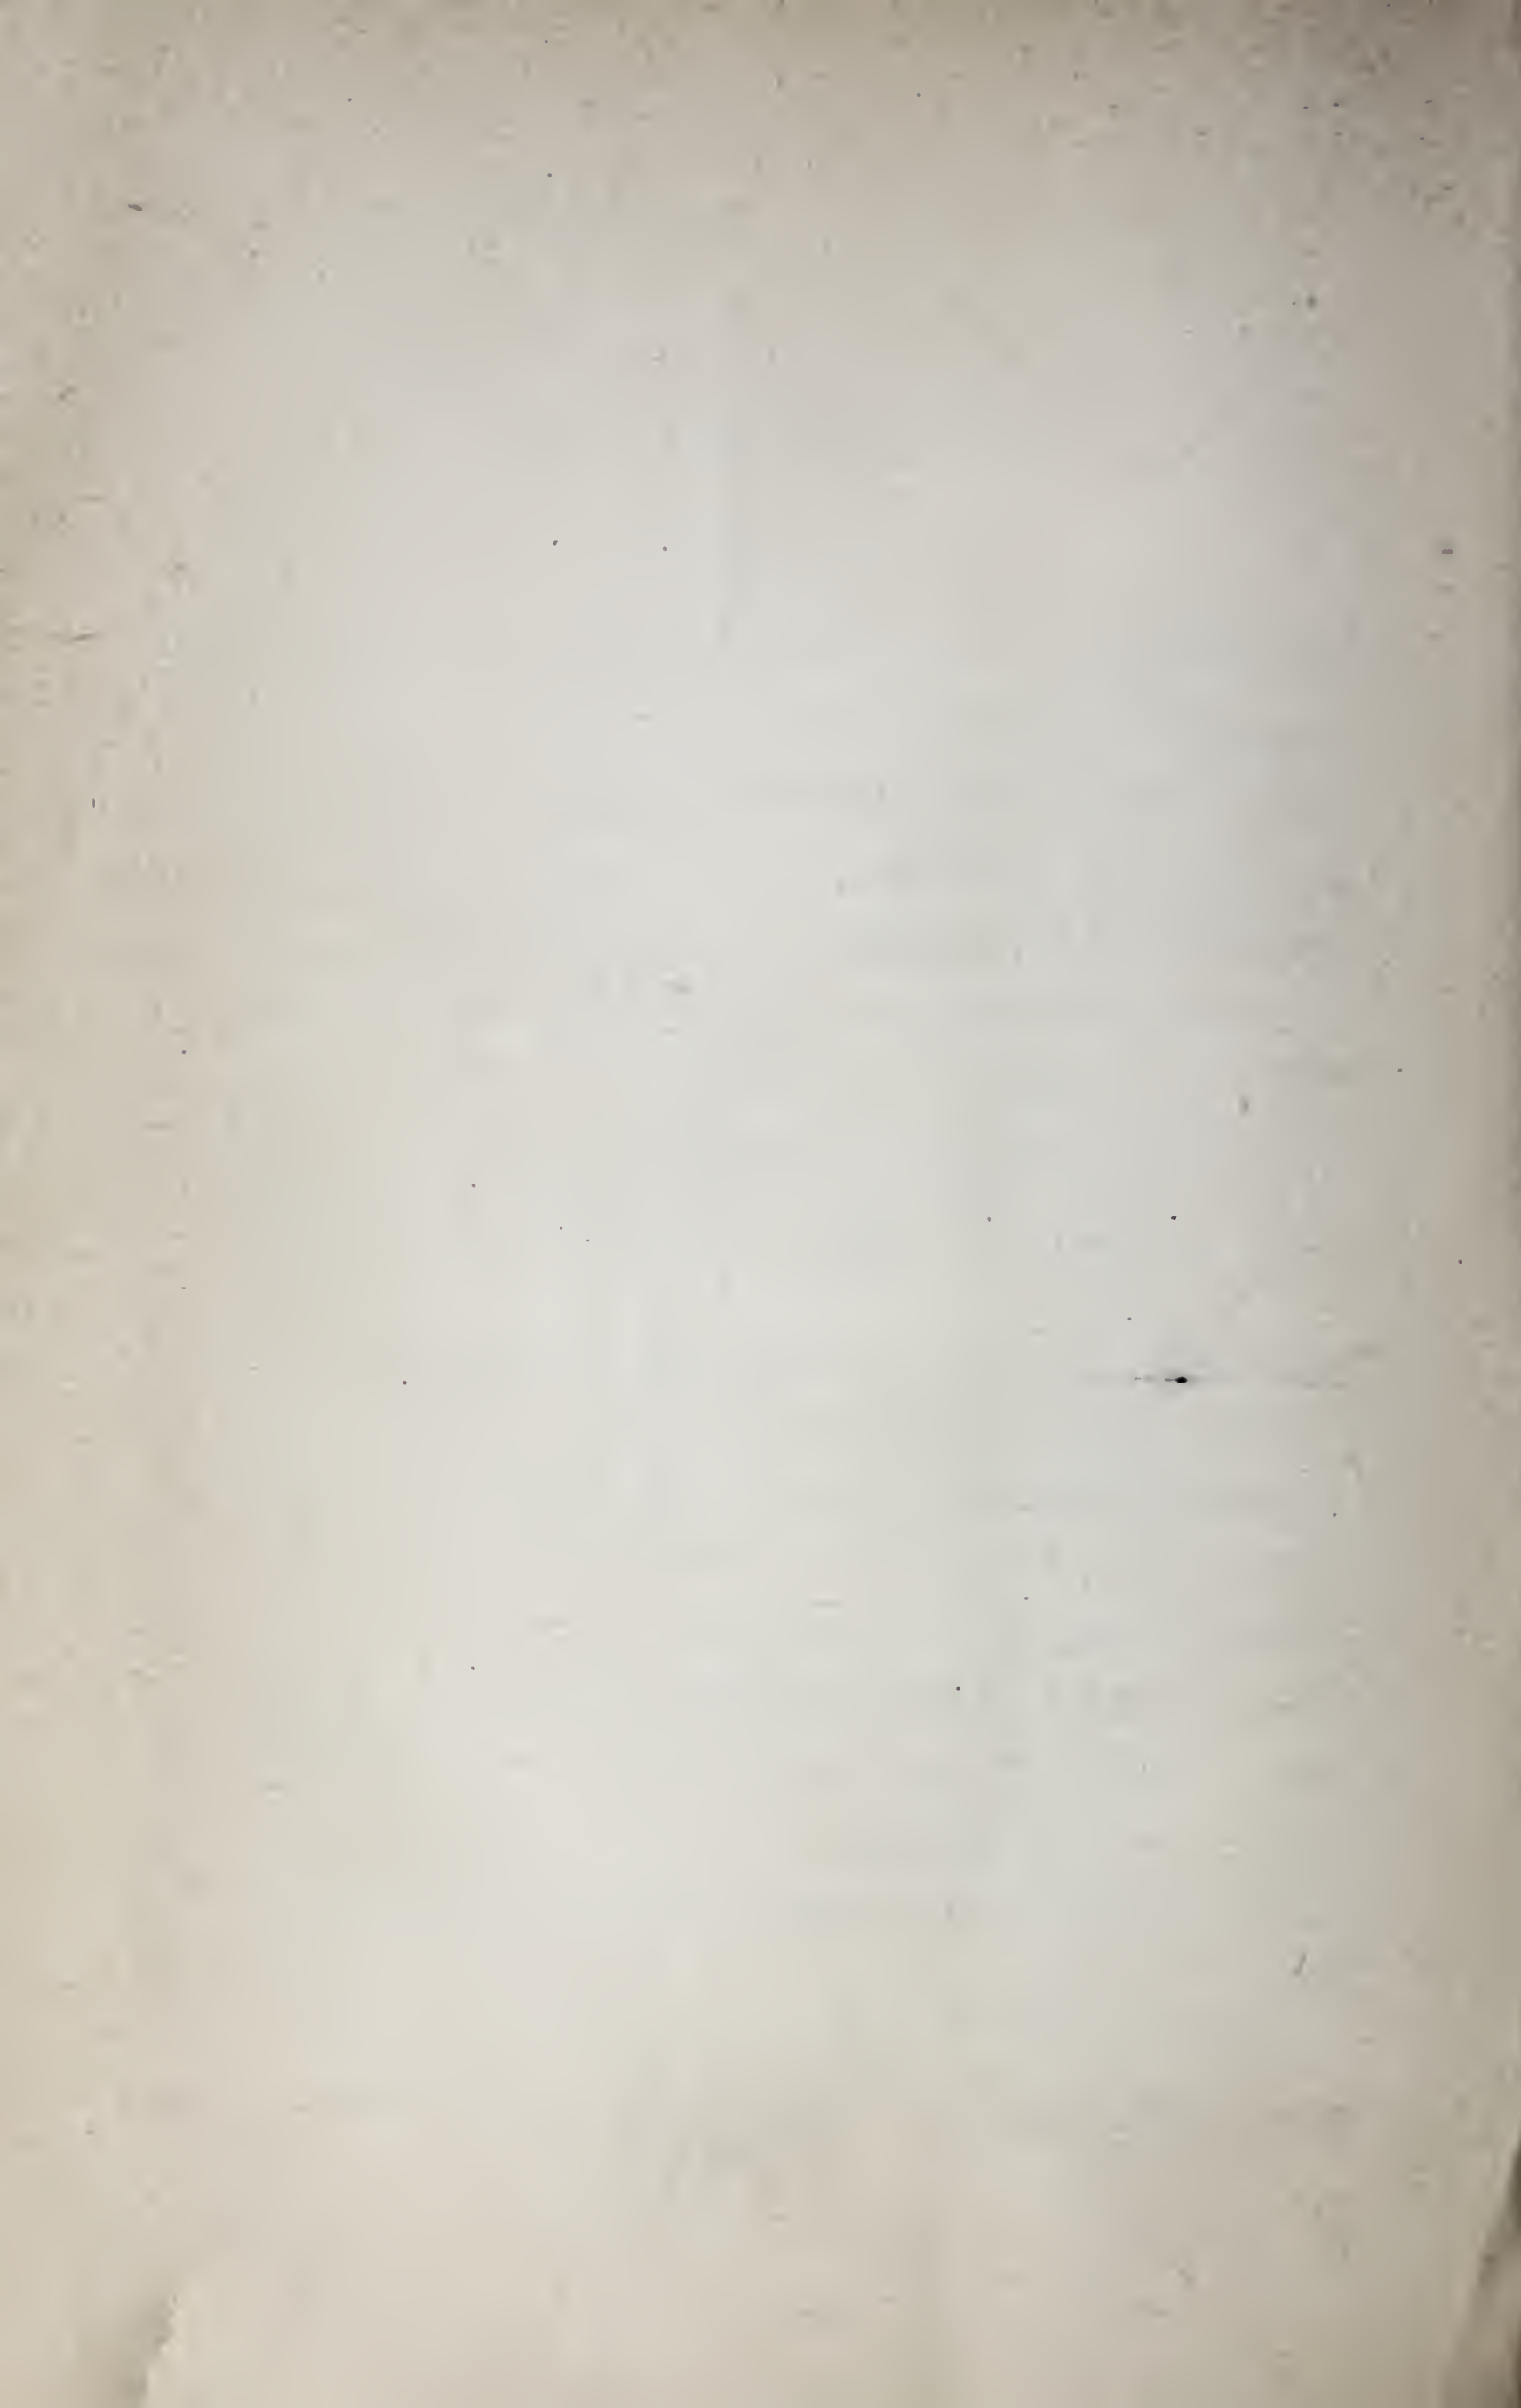

Those who favor us with their patronage can rely upon having their orders carefully and promptly filled on the most liberal terms.

BRITISH LAW TERMS.

By the Act 1 William IV., cap. 70, it is provided that, in A.D. 1831 and afterward, —

HILARY TERM shall begin on the 11th, and end on the 31st of January.

EASTER TERM shall begin on the 15th April, and end on the 8th May.

TRINITY TERM shall begin on the 22d May, and end on the 12th June.

MICHAELMAS TERM shall begin on the 2d, and end on the 25th November.

By the Act 1 & 2 William IV., cap. 3, it was further provided, “That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on a Sunday, then the Monday next after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and that in case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a part of such Term, although there shall be no Sittings in Bank on any of such intervening Days.”

The Long Vacation extends from the 10th August to 24th October.

The first Law Term is called, from St. Hilary, “Hilary Term,” because it used to commence on his festival (January 13). The Law Terms were originally regulated by the Canonical Constitution of the Church, which, by exempting certain seasons, namely, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, and the harvest season, from forensic litigation, divided the year into four periods, or terms, called from the festivals immediately preceding their commencement, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, and Michaelmas terms.

In Scotland, the Law Terms are differently arranged. The Court of Session sits from 12th November to 20th March, and from 12th May to 20th July. But there, as in England and Ireland, the judges are employed in other business during the intervals.

¹ The Digests of Pandects are divided into 50 Books; each Book is divided into Titles, and each Title into Laws; and the Laws generally into Parts or Paragraphs. The first paragraph is not numbered, and is usually quoted by the abbreviation in pr. (in principio). The last paragraph is sometimes quoted by the word in fine, or § ult. (paragraphus ultimus). The Digest is variously quoted by the letters D or P, or II, or ff. ff is supposed to be a corruption of the D with a stroke through the middle, or perhaps of the Greek II.

The ancient mode of quotation was by mentioning the initial words of the Law and of the paragraph, with the initial words of the title. This made a reference to the General Index necessary, e.g., L Profectitia, § si Pater, D de jure dotium, or in reversed order, D de jure dotium L Profectitia § si Pater. Afterward the quotation was L Profectitia 5, § si Pater 6 D de jure dotium; and latterly L 5, § 6, D de jure dotium; or, more correctly, using the letters fr instead of L., since the passages were not laws, but fragments or excerpts from the writings of the Jurisprudents, fr. 5, § 6 D de jure dotium. The modern mode avoids all reference to the words. It is thus: fr. 5, § 6, D 23, 3; or, in reversed order, D 23, tit. 3, fr. 5, § 6, or, shortly, D 23, 3, 5, 6, i.e., Digest.

¹ The Institutes of Justinian are divided into four books,—each book is divided into titles, and each title into paragraphs, of which the first, described by the letters pr., or princip., is not numbered. The old method of citing the Institutes was to give the commencing words of the paragraph and of the title; e.g., § si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. Sometimes the number of the paragraph was introduced, e.g., § 12, Si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. The modern way is to give the number of the book, title, and paragraph, Inst. I. 10, 12; i.e., Inst. Lib. I. tit. 10, § 12.

After Justinian's death, some part of his Novels, to the number of 168, were collected and reduced into one volume, together with 13 of the Greek Edicts, which make up the fourth and last division of the Corpus Juris Civilis.
